MP blames environmental issues as he withdraws support for A30 plan

PETER HODGES

peter@viewnews.co.uk

MP Neil Parish has withdrawn his support for improvements to the A30 road citing that the proposed route has 'environmental problems', as the county council face more backlash from concerned residents and action groups, over the scheme. Campaigners have been dead set against the proposed improvement works, between Honiton and The Devonshire Inn, due to the impact on the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Following the decision from Devon County Council to propose to Government their preferred option for the route, Honiton and Tiverton MP Neil Parish released a statement regarding the decision.

Mr Parish said: "The Government is committed to improving the A303 from Stonehenge to Ilminster and the A358 between Ilminster and Taunton.

"They will then look at improvements on the A30 between 2020 and 2025 from Ilminster to Honiton. The 'Orange' route that the county council has proposed has environmental problems.

"As it stands, the Government has indicated it is not prepared to fund that route. We will need to look at the environmental problems involved in a new route.

"I appreciate all the hard work the county council has done on this, but we may have to opt for a lesser scheme that does not involve so much intrusion into the Blackdown Hills."

The Orange route would see a new road leaving

Honiton and deviating from the existing route through Monkton towards the A303, to make its way through the Blackdown Hills and joining up with the original route, near The Devonshire Inn.

Following the Devon County Council meeting last week, where the route was agreed, one couple was left distraught, as the proposed route travels straight through their farm.

Owen and Sue Sparks have described the decision as 'devastating' and said it would destroy their livelihood for future generations.

Before the meeting, a petition, asking the council to re-evaluate the plans and proposed route, had gained nearly 1,000 signatures.

And Mr Sparks, 73, said the route would completely destroy his farm in Monkton.

He said: "The Orange route that has been preferred cuts my farm in half.

"They're destroying my farming life. For me, my sons, my grandchildren. That's all gone - finished. They have absolutely completely destroyed my business.

"There are other routes. They can do it in a different way and leave the Blackdown Hills completely alone - full stop. It will destroy my business, and my sons' and grandsons' when they inherit my farm."

Mr Sparks said he was concerned not just with the damage it would do to his farm, but to the area as well.

David Black, the officer who recommended the decision to council, said it was the most favourable route for reduced environmental impact, having less impact of the scenery, biodiversity, cultural heritage, and it has to manage fewer water-crosses.

Honiton's Devon County Councillor Paul Diviani feels the route is the right step forward for the area and will strike a balance between the safety of road users and the environment.

Cllr Diviani said: "Successive governments have been talking about improving this route since 1949 but unfortunately it's all talk and minimal action.

"We must snap out of this complacency. The road is littered with speed roundels painted on the road through the Blackdowns indicating fatal accident spots.

"The Orange route has raised landscape and environmental impact concerns from the Blackdown Road Action Group and residents of Cotleigh and Upottery but sufficient mitigation measures will be put in place to reduce the effects of these on the AONB. At the end of the day there has to be a balance between the safety of human life and the environment."

The decision by the council does not initiate the start of construction of the new road, but only sends its approval and recommendation to the Secretary of State for Transport.

■ OWEN and Sue Sparks would see their farm cut in half if the proposed route is given the go-ahead

JOBS NEWS

First increase in number on the dole since February

THE number of Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA) claimants in Devon increased by 13 during November.

It is the first rise in the number of claimants since February – the total claimant count now standing at 2,860, which is 23 per cent lower than the same time last year.

The number of youth claimants (aged 24 and under) increased by 15 across Devon between October and November.

At a district level, East Devon, Exeter, North Devon and Teignbridge experienced increases of between five and 10 youth claimants.

Torridge and West Devon fell by five youth claimants each, with Mid Devon and South Hams remained unchanged.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council's Cabinet Member for Economy and Growth, said: "Whilst November's

JSA data shows a slight rise in claimants for Devon, the overall trend for the year remains encouraging.

"We continue to back schemes aiming to reduce unemployment, boost wages and increase the diversity of the Devon economy.

"Our network of Work Hubs throughout Devon is providing valuable shared employment space for start-ups.

The Devon Delivers Business Promotion grant is also helping businesses tap into growing markets, with initiatives such as Devon's Fab Lab and Enterprise in Schools, helping boost digital skills and encourage entrepreneurial spirit in our youth.

"We are also working with new European Social Fund programmes to help those furthest from the labour market to improve their employability and skills."

Cannabis haul worth £100k seized by East Devon police

POLICE seized suspected cannabis to an estimated street value of £100,000 during a raid in East Devon on December 15th.

Police have not disclosed the exact location of the raid, but officers at the scene tweeted a photo of the haul shortly after it had been seized. The value was estimated at £100,000.

A police spokesperson said that the premises in question were empty when officers struck, so there were no arrests.

In a brief statement issued the following morning, a police spokesperson said: "A warrant was executed yesterday in East Devon, we are unable to comment further on this live investigation, at this time."

Prescriptions reminder

DOCTORS in Devon are urging patients to make sure they have enough medication to see them over the four-day Christmas holiday, as well as reminding people how to access health care services when surgeries are shut.

GP surgeries will close on Friday, December 23rd and, because of the bank holidays this year, won't re-open until Wednesday, December 28th. Information about which pharmacies are open over the festive period is available online at <http://bit.ly/2hL6sJN>

District council's first civic carol service well attended

PETER HODGES
EAST DEVON reporter

MORE than 100 Devon and East Devon dignitaries and guests attended the first ever East Devon District Council Chairman's Civic Christmas Carol Service, which took place in Sidmouth recently.

VIP guests included the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Devon, Philip Jenkinson, Devon High Sheriff, Angela Gilbert and East Devon MP Neil Parish.

The hour long service, which was led by The Reverend Canon Dr Philip Bourne, featured music by the Sidmouth Town Band and uplifting choral renditions of 'Away In A Manger' and 'Holly And Mistletoe,' sung by children from the local primary school.

The congregation sang a selection of familiar carols, chosen by the local community at the request of Councillor Stuart Hughes, the chairman of East Devon District Council.

Following the service, Councillor Hughes invited his guests to Kennaway House where they enjoyed an afternoon tea.

Commenting on the carol service and tea, Councillor Hughes said: "I would like to say a massive thank you to everyone who helped organise this carol service, especially Maria Pearce from East Devon District Council, and another thank you to all my guests for coming and helping make this event so special.

"Everyone was on tremendous vocal form and the energetic singing nearly lifted the roof off the lovely parish church.

"I think it is fair to say that this joyful occasion, which I hope will be the first of many civic carol services to be held by future chairmen of the council, has put everyone well on course for Christmas and it just remains for me to wish all of East Devon a very Merry Christmas and a Happy & Prosperous New Year."

MP Neil Parish joined Cllr Stuart Hughes for afternoon tea following the first ever Civic Christmas Carol Service

Teenager killed in A3052 crash

A TEENAGE boy died after a car crashed into a tree on the A3052 near Lyme Regis.

The boy, a 17-year-old from Lyme Regis, was pronounced dead at the scene and the driver, a 28-year-old man from Colyton, was flown to Derriford Hospital in Plymouth where he is in critical condition.

The single-car crash, involving a dark coloured Honda Civic, took place at about 12.30am on Saturday morning at Ware Cross on the Dorset and Devon border.

Police and ambulance crews attended the scene, as well as the police helicopter from Exeter, who flew the driver to Plymouth.

A specialist forensic investigation was carried out at the scene, which resulted in the A3052 being closed for approximately nine hours.

Collision investigators said that it was a particularly complex scene, which accounted for the unusually long road closure.

Police are appealing for witnesses to this incident or anyone who may have seen this car shortly before the incident to contact them by emailing 101@dc.police.uk or call 101 quoting log 30 of 17 December 2016.

Flowers have been left at the scene of the crash on the A3052 in memory of a 17-year-old boy from Lyme Regis

Town council's concern over proposed hospital bed losses

HONITON Town Council has registered its extreme concern at the impending loss of 71 community beds in East Devon.

In a statement, the town council said: "It is a well known fact that there is an above average population of elderly people in East Devon.

"Older people take longer to recuperate from illness, hospital admission and operations.

"Community services are already overstretched and there is an acute lack of appropriate carers to care for people in their own homes. At a time when large hospitals are experiencing delays in discharging patients, due to bed-blocking, our local hospitals are a huge resource in helping patients return to their home location.

"This is because local hospitals are closer to the network of family support and, therefore, are likely to reduce the amount of bed-blocking which may occur.

"There is also evidence that the more family support available, the faster the recovery of patients to return home.

"All the government advice has been to encourage the care of people close to their homes.

"So we therefore urge our two local MPs to consider the plight of Devon and speak on our behalf to reconsider this ill-thought-out decision which has come about only for financial reasons."

CHARLIE'S BACK AT COLLEGE

FORMER Honiton Community College student Charlie Wright poses with the current crop of young athletes at the school

HONITON Community College recently welcomed back former student and England under 18s rugby international Charlie Wright to lead a Junior Sports Academy workshop.

The session was designed to educate the students around balancing training and study, understanding some of the difficult choices and sacrifices that elite athletes have to make and to provide some practical experience of strength and conditioning and healthy eating choices.

Whilst attending the school, Wright played rugby for England Under 16s as well as being selected for the Exeter Chiefs Academy.

Since then, Wright has been selected for England Under 18s last season and is in the squad again this year.

He will compete in matches against the home nations in March and then join teammates on a tour to South Africa in the summer.

Wright shared his experiences of dealing with injury, balancing study, making sacrifices and the importance or positive role models in achieving success.

The students also got to tap in to Wright's expertise during a practical session looking at weight lifting technique and in preparing pre and post-workout protein shakes during the nutrition session.

There were many Sports Science students in the workshop who were able to explain why a nutritious diet is so important to support effective training.

Sports academy co-ordinator Tom Skelding said: "Welcoming Charlie back to college has been a real inspiration for our young athletes because he had a very similar start to his sporting career.

"His natural talent is a very small part in his success with the majority of it coming through hard work, drive and total dedication.

"Charlie is someone that our HCC students can relate to and is a very positive role model and I look forward to welcoming Charlie back year on year, hopefully one day as the Exeter Chiefs' first team captain!"

HONITON Scout group's Christmas fayre was once again a resounding success, as the event raised more than £300 for the organisation. Plenty of festive attractions were on offer, as well as a Christmas draw.

■ The local business community toasted Christmas when Scott Rowe Solicitors in Axminster threw a party on December 9th. It is tradition for the company to have a Christmas party on the same day as Axminster's Festive Friday, and this year was no exception.

Axe Valley students in Germany

A GROUP of Axe Valley Community College students spent a week in Germany, improving their language skills, sightseeing and discussing Europe and Brexit.

They stayed with host families in Kirchweyhe, near Bremen, and were made warmly welcome.

A special reception was organised by Dr Martin Baschta, the headmaster of the hosting school, Kooperative Gesamtschule, who said he hoped this new partnership would continue until and beyond his retirement in 20 years' time.

The trip (which was only made possible by the support of district councillor Andrew Moulding, The Rotary Club of Axminster and an anonymous sponsor from London who gave £1,000) included a visit to the Mercedes Benz factory in Bremen, a chance to experience life as blind people do at Dialogue in the Dark exhibition in Hamburg and the fascinating Emigration Museum in Bremerhaven, as well as several of the famous Christmas markets.

"Everyone's German has really improved," said 13-year old Axe Valley pupil, Holly.

"We were in real life situations with our host families and in shops where we had to understand and speak the language."

She went on to say: "We're all truly grateful to our sponsors and the staff whose hard work and effort made this exchange possible."

Another enthusiastic pupil, Ellie, said: "I love German food. The whole experience was amazing and one which will stay with me for my whole life."

Towards the end of the week the Weyhe Municipal Mayor, Dr Andreas Bovenschulte, hosted a reception at the town hall where the subject of Brexit was not avoided.

A college spokesperson explained: "Having voiced his disappointment at the choice of the British public, Dr Bovenschulte's address reiterated the hope of Dr Baschta that the young people of Britain would continue to visit Germany for many years to come and that it is the youth who will determine relations with Europe in the future."

Axe Valley pupils, Hannah, Alex and Alexandra, were reported in a local paper, Kreizeitung, as saying: "For us, Europe is a great community giving opportunities to live or work somewhere else."

When interviewed in German by the more widely read Weser Kurier, A-level student, Matilda, expressed her view on Brexit, saying: "I'm totally against it. I love Germany and hope to be able to work here one day. Brexit may make that harder."

The college spokesperson said: "Some of the pupils have made plans to visit their hosts independently before the Germans arrive in England next April, such is the strength of relations already."

Reading challenge at Axminster Primary

CHILDREN at Axminster Primary Academy took part in a reading challenge earlier this month.

The bell rang at random intervals eight times throughout 'Drop Everything and Read Day' at the school.

Pupils responded to each ring of the bell by putting down their pens and picking up their books for ten minute reading sessions in especially constructed indoor gazebos.

Teacher Donna Butler organised the day and explained that the bell was a signal to drop everything and read for ten minutes.

The school had set up two themed gazebos as designated reading areas; one had a castle theme, the other one an 'under the sea' theme.

Ms Butler said there is another reading initiative planned for spring.

She also asked for any individuals or businesses interested in donating books or money for new books and the school library refurbishment to get in touch, saying donations would be gratefully received.

'Fantastic' Lions' Mole Day leads to £1,200 for Cancer Research

FOLLOWING the recent success of the Honiton and District Lions Club 'Mole Day' in Honiton, the club donated £1,200 to the local branch of Cancer Research UK.

The 'Mole Day', where members of the public were seen by dermatologists to check out any unusual skin blemishes, was a resounding success as 119 people were seen with a couple being referred to hospital for treatment.

Consultant dermatologist Dr Tony Downs, was accompanied by doctors from the Honiton Surgery on the day, and helped to hand over the funds raised to Cancer Research UK towards studies of skin cancers.

Dr Tony Downs, together with Sally Dawes, Honiton Surgery

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

Lead Practice Nurse, and Honiton and District Lions President Brian Richards, presented Briony Gotch, manager at the Cancer Research Shop in Honiton, with a cheque for £1,200 from public and Lions Club donations from the event.

Briony Gotch said: "It was a very different way to raise funds and one that I and the Honiton Cancer Research shop team really enjoyed getting involved with. The support and interest from the community was amazing, and so is this donation of £1,200."

Dr Tony Downs added that he has been encouraging these events for many years and willing to give his time, but this event arranged by the Honiton Lions was one of the best-ever attended, and he congratulated the club on all their hard work in getting the message across to the community.

Dr Downs said: "As the Honiton Lions have also purchased a Dermatoscope (to assist with skin cancer diagnosis) for the Honiton surgery, everyone should think about being checked on a regular basis by their GP. Given several people, unknown to themselves following the mole day, were spotted with having suspicious moles, and we are pleased to say ended up being treated very soon after. Please remember that skin cancers are fifth on the list of cancers in the UK".

Honiton Lions President Brian

Richards finished: "If anything stood out about the day, apart from the numbers, it was the keen interest and the positive comments from the people who attended, plus their willingness to donate with the club to Cancer Research. It was a fantastic event."

Doctor retires

DR David Ward has retired from Honiton Surgery after 28 years of service.

Dr Ward started at the practice in October 1988, having completed his GP training at RD&E and the Coleridge Medical Centre in Ottery St Mary.

Dr Ward always had strong links with Honiton. His grandmother was born in New Street and her family had been in the town right through the Victorian era. One of his great aunts worked as a decorator at Honiton Pottery.

Dr Ward was particularly involved in the development and use of the computer system at the surgery and by September 1990 there was a computer screen on every desk and shortly afterwards the practice was able to stop using paper notes.

He was also very involved in the research group that started in the practice. He completed an MPhil in 2002 and was particularly interested in research into respiratory diseases such as asthma.

Later on he became involved with medical student teaching at the practice and also became a trainer of GP registrars.

Dr Ward is married to Dr Janet Ward who has also just retired from the practice. They have three children and recently became grandparents. Dr Ward says he is looking forward to an active retirement and being able to pursue his hobbies of travel, gardening and photography. He has also recently joined the Sheldon Singers again, having been a member of the choir in the early 1990s, and will be singing with them in their Christmas concert.

He looks forward to continuing to be involved in the life of the town and continuing to keep in touch with his patients and practice staff while he is out and about.

Dr Dianne Eddison has been drafted in to replace Dr Ward and as of the start of December officially took over the healthcare of Dr Ward's patients.

Dr Eddison has spent most of her working life based in Edinburgh as a GP and hospital specialist in occupational medicine. She moved south in 2010 and has been recently working in Somerset. Now living in Devon she is looking forward to a shorter commute to Honiton and being able to spend more time in the garden. In addition to her GP role in Honiton she is also the Medical Officer for the new Hinkley Point nuclear power station construction site.

Baton award winner receives trophy

THE 2016 Baton Trophy has been awarded to Honiton resident Chas Fowler.

Baton founder Alan Rowe MBE said: "The trustees were in full agreement as to who should receive it this year.

"Chas has been an absolute star with his consistent and thoughtful support, the kind that every charity is desperate for."

The charity presents the award each year to an individual who has gone the extra mile in their support of the organisation.

The Baton is a military charity, based in Honiton, which provides vital support for service personnel and their families.

The presentation was made at the historic Exeter Guildhall by the Lord Mayor, Councillor Cynthia Thompson and Devon Deputy Lord Lieutenant Philip Bostock OBE with Baton trustee Baz Gray, former trophy award winner Robert Hayman, Alan Rowe, Senior SSAFA Devon officials and other friends of the Baton.

Alan added: "Also instrumental in Chas' award is his wife Sara, who has done the most incredible amount of fundraising this year and was instrumental in the Baton being accepted as Otter Nurseries Garden Centre's 'Charity of the Year' where she works.

"Both Chas and Sara have been of immense support to all that the charity stands for and we are truly grateful for their friendship and dedication."

Also announced on the night were the recipients of SSAFA Devon's 47 Christmas hampers, which are handed out to deserving people across the county.

■ CHAS Fowler (second right) received the 2016 Baton Trophy of the year at a special ceremony in Exeter

■ TOP honours at the 35th Exeter and District Christmas Prime Stock Show held at Exeter Livestock Market went to British Blue cross heifer 'Top Tottie', which was homebred by Paul and Lin Calcraft from Honiton.

It was the fourth time the couple had claimed the supreme championship at the show in six years.

Top Tottie was born in April 2015 and went on to top the sale at £2,476, purchased by Darts Farm Master Butchers from Topsham.

Mike returns to Peco

LOCAL man Mike Davis, who recently retired from Pecorama in Beer after 15 years, returned to the Beer attraction earlier this month to catch up with friends and colleagues.

What Mike didn't know was that Pecorama directors Michael Pritchard, Ben Arnold and Chris Noake had arranged for Mike to drive one of his beloved steam trains around the Pecorama Railway, before joining them together with his friends and family for a surprise celebration 'high tea' in the magnificent Orion Pullman Carriage on site.

With an afternoon tea menu, reminiscent of those famously served at the Ritz and the Savoy, Mike enjoyed the afternoon being served with a fine selection of cakes, pastries and finger sandwiches whilst reminiscing with friends and former work colleagues.

Pecorama chairman, Michael Pritchard, said: "It really was a delightful afternoon and we were so happy that we could surprise Mike in this way as a small token of our affection and to show our appreciation for Mike and all he has done for us over the years."

■ MIKE, seated in the middle on the right next to his wife Pam, with Peco group managing director, Ben Arnold, seated far right in the blue sweater and Peco group finance director, Chris Noake, seated fourth left. Inset, Mike driving 'Claudine'.

Swedish shop's first anniversary

■ LIVE music, food, drink and laughter were on the menu when a Seaton shop celebrated one year of trading.

Affär (which is the Swedish word for 'shop') opened in premises at Cross Street in December last year, so a birthday party was subsequently held on December 10th this year.

Trade was so brisk that shop owners Charlotte Beards-Kalen, who is Swedish, and Ian Beards

The shop offers a mixture of transformed old furniture, modern pieces, rugs, candles, paintings, porcelain and a selection of Swedish food.

Bumper bazaar at Seaton Primary

SEATON Primary School PTA hosted one of its most successful Christmas bazaars ever this year, raising a whopping £2,700.

PTA chairman Davina Symonds said: "We are so grateful to the staff and parents who work so hard to put on lots of different stalls and even braved freezing temperatures with an outdoor food court serving sausages, mulled wine and hot chocolate.

"Thanks to the support of Seaton businesses, who donated much of the food and drink this year, and a fantastic turnout from parents, the PTA will be able to buy lots more reading books and equipment for the school.

"The funds raised will be used in 2017."

Big turnout for Victorian Market

HUNDREDS of people turned out for the Seaton Artisan Market Victorian Fayre on Saturday, December 10th, despite what organisers described as "dull weather".

'Queen Victoria' opened the market and was impressed with the hand-crafted Christmas products on show from local artisan traders.

The market is organised by Seaton Town Council, and a spokesperson said: "In addition to the artisan products, there was a host of entertainment to welcome shoppers at the fayre."

"Seaton Primary School Choir performed, followed by dancing chimney sweeps and parlour maids courtesy of JM-Dancefit.

"Later on, readings from A Christmas Carol took place and shoppers were able to try their hand at Victorian juggling and circus skills."

The artisan market returns in March 2017 for Grizfest.

Police appeal for witnesses

POLICE are seeking witnesses to an incident in which a man and a woman were the alleged victims of assault.

The incident took place within and outside The Royal Clarence in Harbour Road on Friday, December 2nd at about 10pm.

The police report does not say if they were injured, but the ambulance service was not called to the scene.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101, the crime reference being CR/0854 05/16.

Cafe supports food bank

ST GREGORY'S Parish Church Community Cafe Project has donated £100 worth of food supplies to the Seaton Food Bank appeal.

Formally known as FREE-dom cafe, the project is a free community cafe that opens its doors once a month to everyone living, working or just visiting Seaton.

The cafe is held in St Gregory's Church Centre.

More information is available by emailing freedom-cafe321@gmail.com or phoning 01297 23656.

No strike action at post office

SEATON Post Office sub-postmistress Beverly Truman said it will be business as usual despite the national five-day strike.

Strike action has been announced for staff at the UK's 300 larger Crown Post Offices, but the Seaton branch will not be affected.

Beverly said: "Some customers thought we would be closed, but that is not the case."

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

COLYFORD: At the meeting on 7th December, the ladies celebrated with their Christmas Party. A generous tea was enjoyed by all and members were thanked for their contributions. There were various readings, both amusing and more thought-provoking. Father Christmas visited with a gift for all and the entries for the 'paper plate angel' competition demonstrated members' creative side. Menu choices were taken for the New Year's meal and ladies were reminded that the annual subscription is due at the January meeting.

On a more sombre note, during the singing of Jerusalem, members remembered their friend Kathy Sawford who passed away in November. The next meeting is on 4th January when the speaker will talk about growing and using willow. For more information contact Elizabeth Harding on 01297 624250.

MUSBURY AND WHITFORD: Christmas Party night started as usual with apologies and birthday posies, of which there were many.

Then the fun began, with seasonal quizzes, lovely food, and turns by the Committee: Valerie stunned everyone with her awesome clog dancing; also she was FairyTinkerbell, she soon wore herself out and had to call in Fairy Counsellor. Meanwhile Santa dressed as a Yeti; he did the usual Santa thing insulting all the guests, and was accompanied by an unhelpful elf, who joined in. Marnie gave a very clever skit on a part of our anatomy, which a family paper wouldn't print, and Margaret gave a monologue about worshipping at St Tesco. Finally Jan Allen, playing the piano, led members in Carols, ending with The Twelve Days of Christmas which, as usual, finished in chaos.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, January 2nd, all welcome.

All were welcomed with a glass of sherry or fruit juice before settling down to enjoy the toe-tapping, swing-along Christmas songs of local entertainer Cameron Lemmer.

The afternoon continued with some 'head scratching' quizzes, the first being 'Time Lapse Photo Match': A large display board showed photos of the committee and group leaders all aged between 16-25 and alongside were recent photos taken by Photography Group leader John Driscoll, the idea being to match them correctly. This proved much harder than expected but the overall winner was Helen Wale who managed 20 out of the 27.

A second quiz was organised by Susan Unsworth. Every table was given a sheet comprising of 40 well-known advertising slogans and personality catchphrases and all that was required was to write down the correct answers, e.g. 'Have a Break' – Kit Kat and 'I'm free' – John Inman. But they were not all that easy – remembering who said 'O'll give it foive' back in the 1960s turned out to be quite a stumbling block for many. The overall winners were the table led by Suzanne and Stuart Jones who all received prizes for their efforts.

A delicious buffet was also enjoyed as part of the afternoon's delights together with a free prize draw.

Chairman Janet Driscoll hoped that everyone had enjoyed the afternoon, thanked the committee for all their hard work and wished everyone a Very Happy Christmas. She concluded with the reminder that the first meeting of the U3A in the New Year was on 18th January at The Beehive.

Art society stalwarts and competition

AXMINSTER ART SOCIETY: Four members were praised for their efforts when standing down from various roles.

Meg Archer-Thomson, Ann Anderson both stood down as tea ladies, Rob Chappel left the role as chairman and Anthea Bareham retired as secretary.

They all received gifts during the society's December meeting.

The new Axminster Art Society logo was also revealed.

A competition was held to create the new logo, and the winner was an entry by Barbara Hills, with Barbara Whiteley in second place.

Those entering the competition were asked to produce a logo that was "simple, memorable, timeless, versatile and appropriate".

Devon castles

AXE VALLEY CENTRE, NATIONAL TRUST were given a talk last month by Robert Hesketh entitled 'Devon Castles'. The talk went through the history of local castles from the Iron Age Forts, Motte and Bailey Castles to Castle Drogo. In addition listeners were told of the military installations to protect the coast up to the time of the Napoleonic Wars in the late 1850s. The talk was very enlightening and the audience now have many more places to visit.

12 Christmas Safety Tips

RoSPA offers simple tips for a safe and happy Christmas: www.rospa.com

CHRISTMAS is a time when your home is likely to be full of people and it is in the excitement of the season that accidents can easily happen. But one of the good things about Christmas is that there are typically more people around to supervise the children and, with a little more care and forward planning, most accidents could be avoided.

Follow these 12 safety tips to help prevent your festivities being cut short by a trip to casualty:

1. Make sure you buy children's gifts for the correct age group and from reputable sources that comply with standards (e.g. The Toys (Safety) Regulations 2011)

2. Remember to buy batteries for toys that need them - that way you won't be tempted to remove batteries from smoke alarms

3. Look out for small items that could pose a choking hazard to young children, including parts that have fallen off toys or from Christmas trees, button batteries and burst balloons

4. Keep decorations and cards away from fires and other heat sources such as light fittings. Don't leave burning candles unattended, make sure you put them out before going to bed and do not put candles on Christmas trees

5. If you have old Christmas lights, seriously consider buying new ones, which will meet much higher safety standards, keep the lights switched off until the Christmas tree is decorated, don't let children play with lights (some have swallowed the bulbs), and remember to switch off the lights when going out of the house or going to bed

6. Remember, Christmas novelties are not toys, even if they resemble them, and they do not have to comply with toy safety regulations. Give careful thought to where you display them, for example, place them high up on Christmas trees where they are out of the reach of young hands

7. Give yourself enough time to prepare and cook Christmas dinner to avoid hot fat, boiling water and sharp knife accidents that come from rushing, and keep anyone not helping with dinner out of the kitchen. Wipe up any spills quickly

8. Have scissors handy to open packaging, so you're not tempted to use a knife, and have screwdrivers at the ready to assemble toys

9. Beware of trailing cables and wires in the rush to connect new gadgets and appliances, and always read instructions

10. Falls are the most common accidents so try to keep clutter to a minimum. Make sure stairs are well-lit and free from obstacles, especially if you have guests

11. Plan New Year fireworks parties well in advance and follow the Firework Safety Code

12. Do not drink and drive, and plan long journeys so you won't be driving tired.

Devon Appliances

DEVON Appliances was formed in 2013 as a sister company to PB Home Solutions of Seaton in Devon by Paul Bromfield, PB supply and install leading brands of kitchens, bathrooms & bedrooms throughout East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset. This was the natural step to take as more and more customers were being supplied "White Goods" and appliances from PB's showroom in Fore Street. Consequently, a new Devon Appliances showroom was opened on Fosseway Park, just off Harepath Road in Seaton.

In 2015 Devon Appliances became members of Euronics thus being able to expand their product range enabling them to offer customers a greater range of appliances together with stable prices.

Devon Appliances hold a full range of white goods from major brands like Bosch, Neff, Siemens, Zanussi, Hoover, Blomberg, iRobot, Lec, Beko Etc and offer an installation and removal service together with free local delivery.

To get a better idea of what Devon Appliances can offer why not visit the showroom in Fosseway Park and have a look at our comprehensive range of products or visit our website at devonappliances.co.uk.

5 tips for better storage

If finding room for the Christmas presents you received seems impossible, check out these ideas for increasing your home's storage space

1. ONE room where storage is essential is the bedroom, and while many of us dream of a walk-in wardrobe, most homes don't have space for one. The next best thing is built-in wardrobes, as they provide acres of space and are a more flexible storage solution than freestanding wardrobes. Fitted storage is particularly useful in awkwardly shaped rooms, such as loft bedrooms, where built-in wardrobes can make the most of the space, especially in the eaves. They are usually made to measure, so all the available space is used, and the interiors can be customised with drawers, shelves and hanging rails, etc, depending on your needs. The main downside is the price - fitted wardrobes typically cost thousands of pounds from a specialist company, although a carpenter will often make them for a lot less.

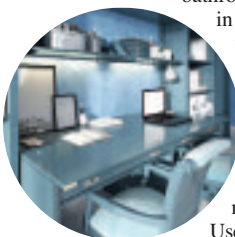

2. If your bedroom already has fitted wardrobes but the doors belong to another decade, simply replace them with more up-to-date ones (as long as the wardrobe interiors are fine). It's easy to get standard-sized or made-to-measure replacement wardrobe doors, especially online, giving you a great new look for a fraction of the price of new wardrobes. Alternatively, get a carpenter to make new doors for you.

3. In the kitchen, lack of storage can drive you to distraction. A larder is ideal, but may not be an option in a small kitchen, where it's really important to have clever storage and a well-designed layout. Kitchen showrooms and DIY stores can offer ingenious ways of making more of the space, including pull-out work-tops, pull-out shelves/racks in larder units, carousels so you can easily access the back of corner units, and tall wall units that provide extra storage in kitchens with higher ceilings.

4. Away from the kitchen, there's potential to create storage space all over the home. Ideas include turning an under the stairs space into a cupboard, window seats with built-in storage, stairs that contain drawers, a vanity unit for extra bathroom storage, and built-in bookshelves and cupboards in alcoves; even a desk. With a bespoke home office, the space can be tailor-made for your computer, printer, files and more.

5. Some of the best storage is, of course, your home's loft. If you need to access it often, fitting a large loft hatch with a built-in ladder will make it much easier. You'll also need to board the loft (if it's not already boarded) before storing things up there. Use sheets of chipboard, or chipboard loft boards, which slot together. 'Soft' insulation (in rolls), such as mineral wool, shouldn't be compressed, though, so use loft legs to raise the floor level above the insulation - the recommended depth for mineral wool is 27cm. Another option is to lay rolls of insulation between the joists, but rigid insulation over them and chipboard on top - some rigid insulation has a chipboard top layer.

Manor Antiques Restorations

Eden Garden Fencing & Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets). Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.al-environmental.com

FESTIVE Television and Christmas Movies

Despicable Me
11.20am ITV1 Christmas Eve

IF you're looking forward to snuggling up in front of the TV this Christmas, look no further than our Festive View for an extensive guide to all of your holiday viewing.

There are all of the usual Yuletide offerings including the soaps vying for top spot on Christmas day and the Doctor Who Christmas special, which this year will see the time lord travel to the Big Apple for a monstrous adventure.

There are also a plethora of family films, to enthrall both young and old with animated classics, fantasy favourites and awesome action movies to entertain. We have chosen five festive family classics to see you through as well as our top ten television picks over the holiday period.

Christmas Eve 11:20am Despicable Me ★★★★★ Join super-criminal Gru as he plots to steal the moon with the help of his adorable assistants the minions.

Christmas day at 3:10pm Frozen ★★★★★ Sing-along with the now infamous theme tune for many wannabe princesses and "Let it Go", as you follow the epic Disney fable of Anna and Elsa.

Boxing Day 4:10pm Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban ★★★★★ Harry Potter starts his third year at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, with the threat of an escaped Death Eater on the loose.

27th December Raiders of the Lost Ark ★★★★★ The first in the action franchise, starring Harrison Ford, sees the archeologist brave an ancient booby-trapped temple in Peru to retrieve a golden idol.

TOP TEN TO WATCH THIS CHRISTMAS

1. ONE of the staples of Channel Four's annual Christmas schedule has been the animated version of Raymond Briggs' The Snowman (C4, Christmas Eve, 4:45pm) since its premiere in 1982, but this year there's also a new short film which no doubt will be repeated for many years to come.

We're Going On a Bear Hunt (C4, Christmas Eve, 7:30pm) is based on the hit bedtime book by Michael Rosen and illustrated by Helen Oxenbury. The half-hour show has been produced by the same team behind The Snowman and its 2012 sequel The Snowman and The Snowdog (C4, Christmas Eve, 5:15pm).

2. SAYING farewell to the Beeb before it finally packs up its soggy bottoms and heads off to Channel Four, is The Great British Bake Off. Two Christmas specials (BBC1, Christmas Day, 4:45pm & Boxing Day, 7:00pm) will see Mary, Mel and Sue together with Paul for one last time. Each instalment sees the show welcome back four bakers from the past to tackle some suitably festive baking challenges.

3. ALTHOUGH there wasn't a new series of Doctor Who this year, Christmas just wouldn't be Christmas without a visit from The Doctor (well, not since 2005 anyway) and you can catch-up with him in The Return Of Doctor Mysterio (BBC1, Christmas Day, 5:45pm).

The Snowman and The Snowdog
5.15pm Channel4 Christmas Eve

Peter Capaldi's Doctor has to save New York City from mind swapping aliens, with the help of Matt Lucas (who returns as Nardole from last year's Christmas special).

4. IF YOU like your comedy with a few darker undertones, then you'll no doubt be a fan of Steve Pemberton and Reece Shearsmith's

Frozen 3.10pm BBC1 Christmas Day

We're Going On a Bear Hunt 7.30pm Channel4 Christmas Eve

To Walk Invisible 9.00pm BBC1 29th December

macabre Inside No 9. A festive special - The Devil At Christmas (BBC2, Dec 27th, 10:00pm) (so maybe not that festive?) - guest stars Rula Lenska and Jessica Raine, who find out first hand of the Austrian legend of Krampus (think the exact opposite of Santa). Set in a snow lodge in 1977, it sounds like it might have a A Tales Of The Unexpected vibe - and might just be the best thing on telly this Christmas.

5. HAS no one made a film about The Brontë sisters before now? It seems strange it's taken this long for the story of literature's greatest group of sisters - Charlotte (Jane Eyre), Emily (Wuthering Heights) and Anne (The Tenant Of Wildfell Hall) - to come to the screen, but it looks worth the wait. To Walk Invisible (BBC1, Dec 29th, 9:00pm) reveals the extraordinary story behind their traumatic family life, which no doubt contributed to the creation of their literary masterpieces.

6. THERE were a number of music biographies launched in to run-up to Christmas, but the one everyone's talking about is Bruce Springsteen's. Tying-in with his book, Born To Run, is Bruce Springsteen: In His Words (C4, Dec 29th, 10:35pm) where The Boss talks about his acclaimed tome, as well as reflecting on his career and what motivates him to continue to tour.

7. ONE of the finest collaborations between Roald Dahl and illustrator Quentin Blake was the 1982 collection of poems, Revolting Rhymes, which retold six classic fairytales in the way only Dahl knew how. Dominic West leads the voice cast in these two new animated films, bringing the 'alternative' versions of these classic stories to life.

The first film (BBC1, Boxing Day, 6:30pm) sees young Snow White and Red Riding Hood become lifelong friends as Snow White takes on the might of the wicked Queen, whilst Red is called home to deal with a pair of hungry wolves - one who's eaten her grandma and then dressed in her clothes, while the other can't help himself from eating some unsuspecting pigs. The second film is at the same time the following evening.

8. THOSE of a certain age will no doubt remember Mike Read's Pop Quiz with either fondness or - if they were a bit too cool for school - abject hatred. I, for one, have happy memories of those Saturday evenings watching the then Saturday Superstore host teasing the biggest music stars of the day with some particularly tricky questions. And, somewhat bizarrely, Pop Quiz is back - and so is Mike Read.

Nostalgic 80s fun aplenty awaits with the first of two new episodes on December 28th (BBC Four, 9:30pm). Guests on the new run include Toyah Willcox, Nick Heyward (Haircut 100), Carol Decker (T'Pau), Tom Bailey (Thompson Twins), Andy McCluskey (OMD), Steve Norman (Spandau Ballet), David Grant (Linx), Cheryl Baker and Jay Aston (Bucks Fizz), Ranking Roger (The Beat), Mari Wilson and Lee John (Imagination).

9. FOLLOWING on from last year's adaptation of And Then There Were None, the Beeb continues its new tradition of Agatha Christie at Christmas with a two-part take on The Witness For The Prosecution (BBC1, Boxing Day, 9:00pm & Dec 27th, 9:00pm).

It's refreshing to see new versions of Christie's whodunnits that don't involve either Miss Marple or Hercule Poirot - there's far more to the best-selling author of all time's canon than just the elderly spinster and the Belgian sleuth. And although this tale of greed and wounded souls may not be typical festive fare, it could well be a Christmas treat all the same.

It's 1920s London and a murder - brutal and bloodthirsty - has stained the plush carpets of a handsome London townhouse. The all-star cast includes Toby Jones (Detectorists, Marvellous, Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy), Andrea Riseborough (Bloodline, Birdman, Oblivion), Kim Cattrall (Sensitive Skin, Sex And The City) and David Haig (The Thick Of It, Mo, My Boy Jack).

10. NOT so much a Christmas highlight - it's not actually on until the New Year - but Sherlock's back! And not with a one-off special either but three all new episodes (yes, series four is finally here after a three year wait). Little is known about the first episode but there are a clues aplenty in the teaser trailer, with Sherlock and Watson sitting across from one another silently, surrounded by floodwater. All will be revealed in The Six Thatchers (BBC1, New Year's Day, 8:30pm).

FESTIVE Recipes

CHOCOLATE ORANGE HAZELNUT CAKE

INGREDIENTS:

- 175ml light-coloured olive oil, plus extra for greasing
- 140g blanched hazelnuts
- 100ml orange juice, plus zest 1 orange
- 140g self-raising flour
- ½ tsp baking powder
- 50g cocoa powder
- 3 large eggs
- 175g light brown muscovado sugar
- For the candied orange slices
- 300g golden caster sugar
- 1 large orange cut into 3mm/1/8in slices

TO DECORATE

- 75ml orange juice
- 100g dairy free dark chocolate
- 50g blanched hazelnuts, toasted
- 1 tsp edible gold powder

METHOD:

Make the candied orange slices a day ahead if you can. Put the sugar and 300ml water in a medium saucepan and bring to the boil. Reduce to a gentle simmer, add the orange slices and cook for 1 hr-1 hr 10 mins or until the pith is translucent, turning occasionally. Line a baking tray with parchment. Carefully remove the slices from the syrup, place on the prepared tray and set aside to dry (at least 8 hrs) before cutting in half. Reserve the syrup.

Heat oven to 180C/160C fan/gas 4. Lightly grease a loaf tin (mine was 900g) with olive oil and line with a strip of baking parchment.

Grind the hazelnuts in a food processor until they resemble coarse breadcrumbs (do not blitz them too much or they will become oily), then add to a bowl along with the orange zest, a pinch of salt and the rest of the dry ingredients. Mix together until evenly combined.

Pour the oil and the orange juice into a jug and mix together. Put the eggs and sugar in a tabletop mixer or large bowl and whisk together for 5-10 mins or until the mixture has tripled in volume and holds a ribbon on the surface when the beaters are lifted out. Slowly pour the oil mixture into the egg mixture and fold together until combined.

Add the flour mixture to the egg mixture in 3 or 4 additions, folding together until combined. You can't sieve this mixture over the eggs because of the hazelnuts, but try not to dump the flour in one place – you need to be careful and fold the batter to retain its lightness. Once fully combined, pour the batter into the prepared loaf tin and bake for 50-55 mins or until a skewer inserted into the centre of the cake comes out clean.

Prick the top of the cake all over, then pour over 5 tbsp of the reserved orange syrup. Cool in the tin for 15 mins, then turn out onto a wire rack to cool completely. Trim the top of the cake (keep this for a mini trifle) and turn out, cut-side down, onto a serving platter.

To decorate, pour the orange juice into a small pan and bring to a simmer. Put the chocolate in a small bowl, pour the orange juice over and stir together to form a smooth ganache. Set aside in the fridge until thickened, about 20-25 mins. Tip the hazelnuts into a small bowl and add the gold powder with a dash of water, stirring together to coat. Put the ganache in a piping bag fitted with a small round piping tip. Pipe in peaks over the top of the cake, decorating with the golden hazelnuts and the orange slices. Will keep for up to 3 days in an airtight container.

BLOODY MARY SCRAMBLED EGGS AND SMOKED SALMON

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 eggs
- 2 tbsp milk
- ½ tsp Tabasco plus extra to serve (optional)
- ½ tsp Worcestershire sauce, plus extra to serve (optional)

- 1 tsp olive oil
- 100g cherry tomatoes
- 1 tbsp finely chopped chives
- 100g smoked salmon sliced
- 4 slices whole meal bread, toasted and buttered
- ½ lemon, sliced into wedges

METHOD:

Beat together the eggs, milk, Tabasco, Worcestershire sauce and some seasoning in a jug. Heat the oil in a large non-stick pan over a low heat and pour in the egg mix. Cook, stirring, until it is done around the edges and slightly runny in the middle. Then tip in the tomatoes and warm through for 1 min until the eggs have finished cooking.

Top the toast with the scrambled eggs and chives, and place the smoked salmon on the side with a wedge of lemon to squeeze over. Drizzle over extra Tabasco and Worcestershire sauce, if you like it with an extra kick.

5 TIPS FOR BETTER STORAGE

By Julia Gray, Press Association

1. One room where storage is essential is the bedroom, and while many of us dream of a walk-in wardrobe, most homes don't have space for one. The next best thing is built-in wardrobes, as they provide acres of space and are a more flexible storage solution than freestanding wardrobes. Fitted storage is particularly useful in awkwardly shaped rooms, such as loft bedrooms, where built-in wardrobes can make the most of the space, especially in the eaves. They are usually made to measure, so all the available space is used, and the interiors can be customised with drawers, shelves and hanging rails, etc, depending on your needs. The main downside is the price - fitted wardrobes typically cost thousands of pounds from a specialist company, although a carpenter will often make them for a lot less.

2. If your bedroom already has fitted wardrobes but the doors belong to another decade, simply replace them with more up-to-date ones (as long as the wardrobe interiors are fine). It's easy to get standard-sized or made-to-measure replacement wardrobe doors, especially online, giving you a great new look for a fraction of the price of new wardrobes. Alternatively, get a carpenter to make new doors for you.

3. In the kitchen, lack of storage can drive you to distraction. A larder is ideal, but may not be an option in a small kitchen, where it's really important to have clever storage and a well-designed layout. Kitchen showrooms and DIY stores can offer ingenious ways of making more of the space, including pull-out worktops, pull-out shelves/racks in larder units, carousels so you can easily access the back of corner units, and tall wall units that provide extra storage in kitchens with higher ceilings.

4. Away from the kitchen, there's potential to create storage space all over the home. Ideas include turning an understairs space into a cupboard, window seats with built-in storage, stairs that contain drawers, a vanity unit for extra bathroom storage, and built-in bookshelves and cupboards in alcoves;

even a desk. With a bespoke home office, the space can be tailor-made for your computer, printer, files and more.

5. Some of the best storage is, of course, your home's loft. If you need to access it often, fitting a large loft hatch with a built-in ladder will make it much easier. You'll also need to board the loft (if it's not already boarded) before storing things up there. Use sheets of chipboard, or chipboard loft boards, which slot together. 'Soft' insulation (in rolls), such as mineral wool, shouldn't be compressed, though, so use loft legs to raise the floor level above the insulation - the recommended depth for mineral wool is 27cm. Another option is to lay rolls of insulation between the joists, but rigid insulation over them and chipboard on top - some rigid insulation has a chipboard top layer.

PRODUCTS OF THE WEEK

Make a DIYer happy this Christmas with the Stanley Cushion Grip Screwdriver Set (£24.99, Screwfix), 10 top-of-the-range cross-headed and flat-headed screwdrivers in different sizes. They have soft-grip handles for comfort and control, but smooth, domed ends for fast rotation. The magnetic tips make picking up screws easy, while the steel bars reduce the risk of the tips breaking. These screwdrivers come in a rigid carry case, so it's easy to keep them together and see if one is missing.

If you're trying to get someone into DIY in 2017, the Forge Steel General Hand Tool Kit (£29.99, Screwfix) is the perfect prezzie. This excellent 55-piece starter kit contains all the hand tools needed for everyday DIY, including a hammer, tape measure, spirit level, mini hacksaw and adjustable wrench. It comes in a sturdy carry bag and is great value.

HOW-TO TIP

If you're having your home rewired and want to add decorative ceiling roses around some of the ceiling lights, ensure you fit them before the electricians are second-fixed. This enables the electrician to fit the plastic ceiling rose on top of the decorative rose, giving easy access to the wiring if there's ever a problem with the light.

Twelfth Night jazz

THE FIRST concert of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre takes place on Twelfth Night, and promises to get 2017 off to a vintage start, with the return of jazz pianist Mike Denham on Friday, January 6th. Mike is a hugely popular performer at the Arts Centre and this concert will take the form of one of his entertaining 'SpeakEasy' nights of vintage jazz.

Joining Mike for this journey back in jazz time is clarinetist Mike Snelling. Weymouth-born Mike took up clarinet at the tender age of 10 and he has been a fixture on the UK traditional jazz scene for many years, originally playing with Alex Welsh, and latterly with Chris Barber between 2006-9. Over the years he has worked alongside many of the world's finest players, including Michael Andrew, "Peanuts" Hucko, Ralph Sutton, Bud Freeman, Buddy Tate, Bob Wilbur and Kenny Davern. Together the two Mikes will entertain the Arts Centre audience with a foot tapping, nostalgia soaked trip through the jazz classics of yesterday.

Mike Denham's SpeakEasy comes to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, January 6th at 8pm. Tickets are £12, and a pre-show supper is available for £14 at 7pm but must be pre-booked. For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Prizewinners on parade

THE FIRST exhibition of the year at Ilminster Arts Centre celebrates the success of the artists who were the prizewinners of the Ilminster Open Competition in 2016. As part of their prize, the artists won the chance to exhibit at the Arts Centre and now their moment in the spotlight has arrived.

Heading the bill is the overall winner Jane Burden, a West Dorset based artist whose mixed media textile and ceramic pieces pack a powerful emotional punch. Her site specific commissions and exhibitions have taken her all over England and her return to Ilminster Arts Centre is keenly anticipated. Former ad-man Peter Monkcom won second prize jointly with Charo Ritchie and both artists will be showing their latest work. Peter (who in his earlier career created the legendary 'Captain Birdseye' of fishfinger fame) uses found objects to construct witty 'assemblages'. Charo is a botanical illustrator who captures the natural world in painstaking watercolour detail. Sue Smallwood, the winner of the 3D prize will also be showing her new pieces - her enigmatic ceramic sculpture 'Jani' was one of the talking points of the 2016 Open. West Somerset based artist Leo Davey won the highly coveted 'Visitors' Choice' award and his highly accomplished evocative paintings will once again grace the Arts Centre's walls.

The eclectic and varied line-up is completed by the three Highly Commended prizewinners: wildlife painter Sue Allen, mixed media artist Imogen Bittner and environmental painter Gary Cook, whose work fuses traditional painting and hard-hitting graphics.

The show opens on January 3rd, running until the 21st, and will be a welcome opportunity to revisit and explore in depth the work of a talented and diverse group of local artists. The exhibition is open 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday, and 9.30am-2.30pm Saturdays. Free entry.

Showtime

OUR NEW SHOWBIZ COLUMN

All the right lines but not necessarily in the right order!

I've spent much of the last few weeks desperately trying to learn my lines for the imminent pantomime, which I'm part of in Axminster in January.

I haven't got very many, but my rapidly aging brain seems increasingly unable to memorise even the simplest of phrases. Former X Factor finalist-turned television presenter Stacey Solomon has faced a media storm this week after suffering from the same affliction and actually went onstage for her first performance of Dick Whittington in Milton Keynes with a clipboard.

I have performed with many local legends, some of which have, at times virtually rewritten parts of shows, by missing out huge swathes of the dialogue, thus leaving other cast members mystified as to how to save the story. The great Bill Street (of Lyme Regis Pantomime fame), before his retirement from the stage, was a master at performing all of the right lines, but not necessarily in the right order.

I witnessed a plethora of professional pantomime masters this week when I attended the gala opening night of Cinderella at the London Palladium. The mayhem maestros included Paul O'Grady, Amanda Holden, Julian Clary and Lee Mead in the fabulously festive show, which cleverly entwined musical theatre references and big budget effects, while keeping the essence of a village pantomime.

The number of celebrities in the auditorium equally matched the number of stars on stage. It's always nice to see a few famous faces, but you do become a bit blasé, when the same ones turn up to everything (Christopher Biggins and Gaby Roslin would probably attend the opening of an envelope!).

There are still some who I feel excited about meeting and I was thrilled to be sitting behind the Krankies, with Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber just a little way in front. There are few celebrities these days that I would be genuinely impressed by, although if I were to meet someone like Barbara Streisand I'd probably go a bit gaga.

I also find the different levels of celebrity really interesting. For example, I've met Brain May on a number of occasions, but many of my colleagues in Lyme Regis don't recognise the legendary Queen guitarist, yet ask them about Georgie Shore and they could probably give you a full biography of the various cast members.

I often get invited to interview people and have no idea who they are, particularly if they have gained fame through reality TV or soap operas. I tend to tell them to imagine I don't know anything about them (which of course, I don't!) and ask them to talk about themselves for the benefit of our readers. Most aspiring celebs are more than happy to regale you with their life history, no matter how dull, unfortunately. In London you tend to meet famous people even when you don't mean to. In fact, I once got a kiss from comedian Peter Kaye as I was wondering through Leicester Square.

I also got chatting to an adorable young lad at a bar in Shepherd's Bush last year and when he told me his name was Jake Bugg, it didn't ring a bell, but apparently he's a rock star!

The opening of Simon Callow's version of A Christmas Carol was an equally starry event and the stage stalwart showed none of the memory problems, with which I'm tormented; recounting the entire Dickens' classic, while depicting all of the characters in an astonishingly adept solo performance.

I get given lots of 'plus ones' to big shows and I've got a few good friends in London, who I know I can trust to behave appropriately at big glitzy celeb filled events.

Most of the time I'm accompanied by my best buddy, former Uplymer Jon White (who came with me to the Palladium this week), but he was busy on Thursday, so my friend Richard Hadfield (formerly of Britain's Got Talent Collabro fame) tagged along to see A Christmas Carol. It's always weird when you're with a celeb, whether it's just meeting them for a coffee or at a big event, as they often have to become a completely different person when faced with hoards of fans wanting selfies and autographs.

It can be a really intimidating experience, although it does earn big brownie points from the PR companies when you turn up with a famous face, because it makes their opening night photos more likely to appear the papers.

Due to my Christmas deadlines, I'm missing the next few pantomime rehearsals and a sense of impending doom is gradually filtering into my psyche. If you would be interested in watching my latest local stage foray, tickets for Robinson Crusoe at the Guildhall, Axminster (January 19th-21st) are available from the Archway bookshop from December 28th.

To take my mind off the panic, I'm going to see the incomparable

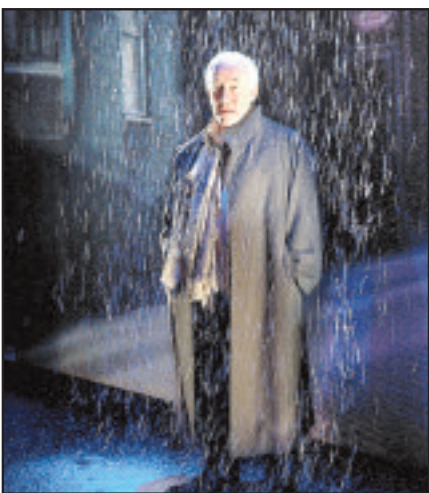

Joe Stilgoe (pianist extraordinaire and son of famed lyricist and entertainer Sir Richard Stilgoe) at the Lyric, Hammer-smith before catching up on the musicals Rent and Dreamgirls, both of which I have missed the press performances of, but as I'm now established, I'm able to request tickets for pretty much whenever I like!

SIMON Russell Beale returns to the Royal Shakespeare Company after 20 years to play Prospero in the ground-breaking production of The Tempest, directed by Royal Shakespeare Company Artistic Director Gregory Doran.

On a distant island a man waits. He has been robbed of his position, power and wealth, and his enemies have left him in isolation. But this is no ordinary man, and this no ordinary island.

Prospero is a magician, able to control the elements and bend nature to his will. When a sail appears on the horizon, he reaches out across the ocean to the ship that carries the men who wronged him.

Creating a vast storm he wrecks the ship and washes his enemies up on the shore.

When they awake they find themselves lost on a fantastical island where nothing is as it seems.

In a unique partnership with Intel, the production will be using today's most advanced technology in a bold reimagining of Shakespeare's magical play, creating an unforgettable theatrical experience.

The broadcast of The Tempest will be shown live on Wednesday, January 11th, doors open 6.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 in advance, £15.00 on the door.

FOR one night only, The Gateway is excited to announce Anne Reid's live show is coming to Seaton

Anne Reid and her musical director Jason Carr present an evening of songs, stories, music and memories, including filming with Daniel Craig, performing Shakespeare at Buckingham Palace, and making Last Tango in Halifax!

Reid is one of Britain's most-loved and respected actors, star of the very popular Last Tango in Halifax, Ladies of Letters, Dinnerladies and The Mother. What is less well known is her life as a cabaret performer.

Over the past two years Reid's cabaret has sold out at numerous venues across London and now she embarks on a UK tour and is coming to Seaton Gateway Theatre.

Her fascinating stories, such as being ferried about the world by young pilots when she was a young girl of 12, working with actor Daniel Craig, being bombed out of her home in the war and the capers of her fearless mother are both self-deprecating and funny and lead effortlessly into the songs, such as Once Upon A Time.

All in all, this is a nostalgic look at her life and career with highly engaging anecdotes and warm audience rapport.

Anne Reid comes to The Gateway on Saturday, January 14th. Doors open 7.30pm Performance 8pm. Tickets £18 in advance.

WHAT better way to wash away the January Blues than with the nations funkier 10-piece soul band that is Joey The Lips, back for another fast paced, full energy amazing party.

This ten piece band originally formed as a soul outfit, the band has since diversified and whilst Soul is still the staple diet we now describe the show as Funky Soul, Blues & Disco Revue! Today's set is very diverse; from Gimme Some Lovin' (Spencer Davis Group) to Beyonce's Crazy in Love, and from River Deep Mountain High to Queen's Don't Stop Me Now, and the band's storming finale of the B52s' Love Shack, with a heavy metal medley thrown in!

Joey The Lips play live at The Gateway on Saturday, January 21st, doors open 7.30pm.

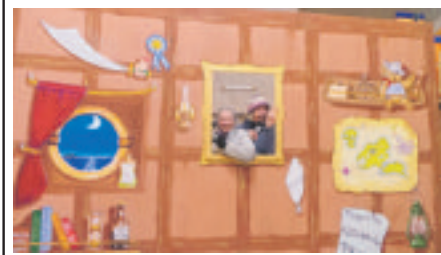

Tickets £13 in advance available from The Gateway Box Office 01297 625699 open Mon-Fri 10am to 4pm and Sat 10am to 1pm.

Colourful Set on the way for Axminster Panto

Preparations are underway for Axminster Drama Clubs next production Robinson Crusoe. For several months now members of the club have been busy making costumes, learning lines and dance routines and everything else that goes into one of ADC's pantomimes. This year current club Chairman Mike Speller will be directing an ADC panto for the first time with the assistance of Jack Price who directed last year's show.

Thanks to the artistic talents of Jackie Demkiw and Heather White this year's scenery looks like being particularly colourful and creative with brand new back cloths and flats well on the way with as usual their now famous humorous touches. The scenery alone is going to be well worth the ticket price!

Tickets go on sale at Archway Bookshop, Church Street, Axminster just after Christmas with performance dates being Thursday 19th to Saturday, January 21st with a matinee on Saturday 21st.

Christadelphians talks in Seaton

CHRISTADELPHIANS (the name means brothers and sisters in Christ) are a worldwide community of men and women who try to follow the teachings and example of Jesus Christ. They are united by a shared faith based on the holy scriptures, and they look forward eagerly to the completion of God's plan for the world and mankind – the setting up of God's kingdom when Jesus returns to the earth as God's appointed King.

The two short talks advertised for Thursday afternoon this week will look at some of the traditions that have grown around the Christmas story compared with the Bible account and take a glimpse at Bible forecasts for the world's future.

The setting is informal and there will be an opportunity to join in the singing of two Christmas hymns.

A Personal Invitation

THE TRUTH ABOUT JESUS' BIRTH AND HIS FUTURE ROLE

Spotlight On My Service

JIM ROSE

Qualified Window
Service Engineer
Ex-Anglian/Europlas

My name is Jim Rose and I am a fully qualified window and door service engineer, repairing double glazed windows and doors in the Exeter and East Devon area for over 30 years. before establishing my own repair business 20 years ago I worked for national companies Anglian and Europlas were I gained vast experience in many areas of my trade and excellent customer care skills.

I specialise in Misty double glazed sealed unit replacement, this is when it looks like there is condensation between the glass, all my replacement units are manufactured locally and carry a 5 year guarantee. I measure and fit all my own units which helps to keep costs competitive.

If your windows and doors are draughty, leaking or not closing correctly there are things that can be done to resolve these problems, sometimes it is just a simple adjustment or maybe new hinges or closing mechanism, no matter how old they are there is normally a solution many parts are still available.

I offer free quotations with no call out charge and all my repair work carries a guarantee.

New MINI John Cooper Works Clubman

THE new MINI John Cooper Works Clubman offers all the style, practicality and fresh-thinking of the Clubman, combined with the high performance and sporting dynamics of the John Cooper Works range.

The result is a unique and exclusive proposition that combines the John Cooper Works-specification engine and corresponding modifications with MINI's ALL4 all-wheel drive system. In creating this potent model, able to take full advantage of the maximum possible traction in all conditions, MINI has created a powerful but practical vehicle that's fun to drive in the true spirit of a MINI.

As the latest member of the John Cooper Works family, the MINI John Cooper Works Clubman features all the upgrades already seen on the John Cooper Works Hatch and Convertible models. These include the 231 hp engine with modified MINI TwinPower turbocharger, sports suspension and powerful braking system. A 0-62 mph time of just 6.3-seconds and a top speed of 148 mph is the result, but not at the expense of economy or emissions; with up to 41.5mpg on the combined cycle and CO2 emissions as low as 154 g/km.

The MINI John Cooper Works Clubman is instantly recognisable thanks to its more aggressive front and rear bumpers, and its rear wing. These not only help reduce lift, but in the case of the front section, assist with the additional cooling requirements of the more powerful engine. Unique alloy wheels and John Cooper Works badging also denote the top-of-the-range Clubman, as does the option of the special colour 'Rebel Green'.

Inside, the John Cooper Works specification includes sports seats, an Alcantara headliner, and a wide array of standard equipment including MINI Navigation, Bluetooth and USB connectivity, and cruise control with brake function. MINI logo projection is also included within the standard package. Beyond that, MINI offers a huge range of personalisation options and further equipment, allowing owners to create their own, unique, MINI John Cooper Works Clubman.

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE (D1E)

ST MARTINS 3 AXMINSTER TOWN 0

A POOR performance at Minster Park saw Axminster Town slump to their third successive defeat and slip to eighth in the South West Peninsula League table.

The Tigers started brightly, but this was to prove their best period of the match as the Saints were marching to victory.

They opened the scoring five minutes before half-time and added a second courtesy of a crisp 20-yard volley from Jack Rawlings. An own goal rounded things off near the end.

Next up for the Ax is the visit by Teignmouth on Tuesday, December 27th (11am ko).

MATCH REPORTS

TOPSHAM TOWN 3 BEER ALBION 4

Premier Division

BEER Albion produced the shock of the day in the Premier Division with a 4-3 win at last season's champions Topsham Town which all but puts paid to any chance Town had of retaining their title writes Richard Honnor.

The Fishermen, having lost their first five league matches are on a run of six matches undefeated including four wins. What made this result more remarkable was that Beer were understrength and travelled with no substitutes.

Beer got off to a great start when they were gifted a penalty for handball inside the first minute which Simon Smith coolly slotted home.

The Fishermen increased their lead midway through the half when player-boss Richard Walker slotted home the second goal.

Topsham responded strongly to reduce the score to 2-1 at the break but Beer went 3-1 up soon after when Chris Long chipped the Tops' keeper.

The Fishermen then had to withstand an onslaught and inevitably Topsham reduced the arrears and then drew level at 3-3.

But, in another isolated breakaway, Long grabbed the winner for Beer.

Man-of-the-match for Beer was mid-field dynamo Alex Hunt who worked tirelessly in front of his backline to break up the Topsham attacks.

BEER ALBION RESERVES 2 MILLWEY RISE 6

Division Five

AFTER beating Millwey Rise on their own patch two weeks ago, below-strength Beer Albion Reserves suffered a reversal going down 6-2 to their Axminster-based rivals at the Furzebrake on Saturday.

Millwey started the game brightly and as early as the sixth minute Beer's young keeper Henry Bartlett took an early blow when making a courageous save at the feet of Millwey skipper Shane Featherstone who received a booking for the challenge. But the visitors were ahead six minutes later through the prolific Levi Hoole, returning after injury, who shot home from 18 yards.

This spurred the Fishermen into life and on 14 minutes they equalised through Joel Seward whose powerful shot was partially blocked by keeper Nathan Hoole but had sufficient momentum to cross the line.

Just before half time the Beer defence failed to deal with a high clearance, Bartlett came out of his area in an attempt to head clear but Levi Hoole won the aerial challenge and his header trickled agonisingly into the net to put his side 2-1 ahead. Again Bartlett came off worse in the clash of heads but carried on bravely.

After the break, Beer again allowed Hoole too much room and he notched his hat-trick on 52 minutes to increase the visitors' lead. On 60 minutes Beer went close when keeper Nathan Hoole mishandled presenting Alex Paget with a chance but his header was cleared off the line. The Millwey keeper made amends 2 minutes later with a fine save from Brewer after a good passing move.

In an incident packed game Beer were reduced to 10 men when skipper Aaron Wain who had been booked earlier was sent off on 63 minutes after receiving a second yellow for a reckless foul.

Not to be outdone, five minutes later Millwey captain Featherstone was dismissed after receiving his 2nd booking.

Millwey put the game beyond Beer on 75 minutes when the home side gave the ball away and were punished on the break by Jack Farrant who made it 4-1 with a clinical finish.

Beer did reduce the arrears on 86 minutes when Robert Adkin headed home a Jack White cross.

However, Beer were punished by two late goals on the counter, firstly through Nathan Womersley on 88 minutes then by Tyler Allen a minute later.

Sponsors Jimmy Green Marine awarded man-of-the-match to Millwey's three-goal striker Levi Hoole.

MILLWEY RISE RES 6 TEDBURN ST MARY RES 1

Division Nine

GOALS from Danny Larcombe and Mark Pike (2) had Rise in control at 3-0 at half-time.

The second period brought more of the same with Millwey dominant in all departments. Chris Lusby scored two further goals and Pike completed his hat-trick before Tedburn had a late consolation goal for their efforts.

D & E Round-up

HONITON TOWN RES stole the show on the final Saturday of 2016 with their 3-1 victory at home to previously unbeaten Division Three leaders Bampton.

An own goal, Luke Phillips and Ryan Dunn scored the Hippos' goals, but The Ponies did have one disallowed and also missed a penalty. Jack Isaacs was their goalscorer.

NEWTOWN will head into the New year as Premier leaders following their 4-3 victory at EXMOUTH AMATEURS, but they nearly let the cat out of the bag. Two goals ahead, Newtown then fell 3-2 behind but managed to recover and score twice to glean the points.

The big game between ELMORE and HONITON TOWN had to be postponed as Horsdon Park was declared unplayable.

The big upset came at TOPSHAM TOWN where the reigning champions were beaten 4-3 by BEER ALBION. The fishermen converted all four major chances but Topsham were guilty of some wasteful finishing.

HEAVITREE UNITED recovered from last weeks cup exit to beat CLYST VALLEY 2-0, and FENITON saw off SEATON TOWN 4-0 although they should have been well adrift before Charlie Selley scored their first half goal from a penalty. Phil Everett and Ben Ede (2) added further goals after the break.

UPOTTERY enjoyed an entertaining 5-3 win at home to HATHERLEIGH TOWN with Max Mckeown scoring twice. Jamie Girtton, Dan Scadden and Dan Anjos completed the Upottery account.

NEWTON ST CYRES ended on a welcome note as they beat BOW AAC 4-1. Dean Billingsley (2), Josh Boulton and Kenny Ord scored for the Cyres, Richard Gregory got one back for Bow but they still seek a first win.

CRONIES FC march on as Division One leaders winning 5-1 at second place COLYTON. A Ryan Burrows hat-trick and Liam Carey brace proved enough to see off their hosts.

SIDMOUTH TOWN won a lively South Coast derby at LYME REGIS 4-3. Rob Fellingham, Chris Herbst and Mark Bailey netted for Lyme who led 2-0 but had Herbst sent off in the 40th minute after receiving a second yellow.

WELLINGTON TOWN drew 2-2 with EXMOUTH TOWN, Jamie Cox and Tobi Jenkins scoring for The Tangerines, Adam Pannell and James Sharkey for the seashiders.

It also finished 1-1 between ALPHINGTON and WILLAND ROVERS whose goal came from Toby Hogan.

CULLOMPTON RANGERS and LAPFORD are soaring ahead in Division Two. The Rangers won 3-0 at HALWILL, and Lapford won 4-0 at home to HEAVITREE UNITED with Mark Tucker getting a hat-trick and Harry Leach also scoring. Keeper Matt Parsell saved a penalty.

CHAGFORD were twice behind at home to WOODBURY but rescued the game to win 4-2. Dave Evans and Tim Held scored for the Wooders, but two Andrew Davis penalties and singles from Josh Stanbury and Frankie Astill-Sheppard won it for the mormen.

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON won their derby game at TIPTON ST JOHN 2-1 with Rafael Castillejos and Warren Vaughan goals. Jonny Heaver had the Tipton goal.

With Third Division leaders Bampton coming undone, rivals PERRY STREET made up some ground as they despatched EAST BUDLEIGH 4-1. AXMINSTER TOWN RESERVES also banked three points after Mike Knight (3), Aaron Daniels (2), Brad-Lee Miller (2) and Jamie Barfoot netted in the 8-1 demolition of CULM UNITED.

THORVERTON won the top game in Division Four 2-1 at home to UPLWOMAN ATHLETIC with Adrian Andrews and Jack Thomas scoring. Paul Orchard managed one back for the thors who claimed they had far more of the game.

OTTERY ST MARY recovered from going behind against PINHOE to win 2-1, Jake Allen getting both goals.

The ROYAL OAK dropped their first points as Division Five leaders with a 4-4 draw against second place CREDITON UNITED. That was the best outcome for the chasing pack especially MILLWEY RISE who left BEER ALBION 6-2 winners, and WHIPTON & PINHOE who returned victorious from SOUTH ZEAL 5-0.

EXWICK VILLAGE took over as Division Seven leaders with a 5-0 win at SILVERTON, but they have on eye on HEMYOCK who powered to a 7-0 win against neighbouring DUNKESWELL ROVERS.

Darren Heale and Shane Heal both scored twice for TIVVY PARK RANGERS in their 4-1 success at HATHERLEIGH TOWN.

LYME REGIS RES look well set to challenge for promotion after a 6-1 win at lowly Stoke Hill. Dec Ellis bagged a second half hat-trick for the Seashiders whose other marksmen were Julien Simier, Fred Parsons and Mark Batey.

With neither of their main rivals in action, AXMINSTER TOWN took over first place in Division Eight as they saw off SEVEN STARS KENNIFORD 3-1 with goals from John Vaughan, Darren Whitehouse and substitute Pete Smith.

Division Nine leaders WITHERIDGE have been reeled in by second place ST MARTINS who won their six-pointer at Edge Down 1-0.

There were huge smiles at FENITON where they ended a dismal run with a 3-1 win at HONITON TOWN 3RDS. Karl Allen bagged the Hippos' consolation.

CHAGFORD won 8-3 at AMORY GREEN ROVERS Kev Hirst leading the way with a hat-trick. Darren Siwiec, Nathan Hubble, Adam White, Dan Stone and Zak Gill also scored.

The Devon & Exeter League has now shut down for the festive season, the first matches in 2017 will be on Saturday, January 7th.

Exeter City Ladies in form on the road

◆ OFF THE MARK ON THEIR TRAVELS: Exeter City Ladies travelled to Bristol-based St Nicholas in the FA Women's Premier League on a wintery Sunday afternoon. The hosts led twice but were pegged back by goals from Sarah Hill and Kate Finch and the Grecians' girls deservedly banked their first away point with the 2-2 draw. The team are pictured above with Terry Schofield (left) Chairman of Exeter City Ladies FC next to sponsor David Grimshaw of Exe Mortgages (www.exemortgages.co.uk).
